Warſaw, Dec. 13. N. S.

Circular Letters are ſent to the ſeveral Palatinates, containing the Points to be treated of at the General Diet, which is to meet here towards the latter end of January next. The King of Poland is ſtill at Brezza in Lithuania, endeavouring to reconcile the two Parties of Sapicha and Oginsky; But in the mean time, here is a report of an Action that has happened between them near Grodno, in which 'tis ſaid Prince Sapicha was worſted, and loſt about 2000 Men.

Vienna, Dec. 27. Expreſſes arrive here very frequently from the Congreſs at Carlowitz, where the Treaty for a General Truce between the Emperor and his Allyes on one ſide and the Turks on the other, advances very ſucceſsfully; In ſome of the laſt Conferences the Turkiſh Ambaſſadors preſſed very hard to have Caranſebes demoliſhed, and ſeveral places on the Save, now in the Hands of the Imperialiſts, reſtored to them and in ſuch caſe ſeemed willing to deliver up Temeſwaer, or at leaſt to demoliſh it; but the Emperors Ambaſſadors conſidering the uſefulneſs of Careſebes in covering of Tranſilvania, That the new Forreſs the Germans are building at Arat makes Temeſwaer of leſs conſequence to them, and that 'tis abſolutely neceſſary to preſerve the Paſſes they have on the Save, They abſolutely rejected theſe Propoſals, and the Turks remained ſatisfied, That things ſhould continue as they are at preſent. The Polanders have agreed to deliver up ſeveral Places in Moldavia, and in lieu thereof Caminiec is to be reſtored to them, which is the Great Point they were ſollicitous about. Matters are not yet agreed on between the Moſcovites and the Turks, but 'tis believed Things will be left on the ſame foot they are now. The only material Point that remains in Diſpute between the Turks and the Venetians, is about the Fortaeſs of Lepanto, which the Turks would have reſtored to them, becauſe it would cover their Frontiers on that ſide, and offer, in conſideration thereof, to give up to the Republick ſome Places in Dalmatia; And the Venetian Ambaſſador has diſpatched a Courier to Venice, to receive further Inſtructions hereupon. The new Queen of the Romans is expected the 16th of the next Month at Trent, and will arrive here about the middle of February, againſt which time all Things are ordered to be in a readineſs for her Reception. The Prince of Lobſcowitz, who is to attend her as her High Steward, and the Count of Baar as her Maſter of the Horſe, are gone to receive her on the Borders of the Country of Tyrol, and to conduct her to the Imperial Court; and the King of the Romans himſelf intends to go incognito, and meet her about a days Journey from hence.

Bruſſels, Jan. 7. The Regulation concerning the Forces to be kept on foot in the Spaniſh Netherlands, being ſent back from Madrid with the King of Spain's Approbation; The Council of State here has been ſeveral times aſſembled, to conſider of putting the ſame in Execution. The Count de Monaſterol is made Captain of the Guards to the Electoral Prince of Bavaria

Hague, Jan. 9. The Sieur Cleverskerke, Ambaſſador from the States-General to His Majeſty of Great-Britain, is come back to this place from North Holland in order to his return to England. Monſieur Dyckveldt intends to ſet out from hence next Tueſday for Bruſſels, and will continue there ſome ſhort time, before he goes on his Embaſſy to Spain. Don Quiros, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, is returned from Amſterdam, where he has been ſome few days. The Duke of Wirtemberg is gone from hence to his Government of Sluce. The States-General have received a Letter from the Elector of Brandenbourg concerning the Affair of Elbing, which he has writ to them on account of their being, jointly with the Emperor and the King of Denmark, the Guarands of the Treaties of Velau and Bidgoſt, on which his Electoral Highneſs's Pretenſions are founded. We hear, the King of Denmark has offered his Mediation for adjuſting this Affair.

Paris, Jan. 7. N. S. The 4th Inſtant being appointed for the Publick Entry of the Earl of Jerſey, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from His Majeſty of Great-Britain, his Excellency went in the morning, with the Engliſh Noblemen and Gentlemen at preſent here, who accompanied his Excellency on this Occaſion to the Hotel de Rambouiller, the Place from whence Ambaſſadors make their Entry. His Excellency being arrived there, received the uſual Compliments from the Ambaſſadors and Foreign Miniſters, who for that purpoſe ſent thither each a Gentleman in a Coach with 6 Horſes, and theſe Gentlemen and Coaches (after having Complimented my Lord Ambaſſador) returned, according to Cuſtom, without aſſiſting at the Entry. The Princes of the Blood ſent their Coaches, and a Gentleman with each to Compliment his Excellency; About One, the Mareſchal de Catinat, who was ſent by the King to receive and accompany his Excellency in his Entry, and the Baron de Breteuil, Introductor of Ambaſſadors, came with the King's Coach and the Dutcheſs of Burgundy's; And about Two of the Clock the Entry began in the manner following.

The Mareſchal de Catinat's Coach with his Gentleman of the Horſe, another Gentleman, and two Grooms before it, went firſt, at ſome diſtance, to guide the March; Then came three of His Majeſty's Meſſengers, his Excellency's Gentleman of the Horſe, and 6 Pages, all on Horſeback, and 20 Footmen; The King's Coach, in which were my Lord Ambaſſador, Mareſchal Catinat, the Introductor, and the Earl of Sandwich; the Dutcheſs of Burgundy's Coach with my Lord Hayes, my Lord North, and the Dutcheſs's Gentleman of the Horſe; Monſieur's Coach with Mr. Prior Secretary of the Embaſſy, Maſter of Roſſe, and Monſieur Ambert Introductor of Ambaſſadors to Monſieur; Madame's Coach, and the Coaches of the reſt of the Princes and Princeſſes of the Blood in their order, and in them the reſt of the Engliſh Gentlemen, their Footmen walking by the ſide of their Coaches. Next came his Excellency's Body-Coach empty, drawn by eight Horſes, preceded by a Gentleman and a Swiſs on Horſeback, and two Footmen walking by the ſide of the Coach, his Excellency's Chariot drawn likewiſe by 8 Horſes; a 3d Coach with 6 Horſes, and a 4th with 6 Horſes. In theſe Coaches were the Gentlemen who belong immediately to his Excellency's Family; and the Coaches of Monſieur de Torſy Secretary of State, and of the Baron de Breteuil Introductor of Ambaſſadors, cloſed the March. Being come to the Houſe for the Entertainment of Ambaſſadors, the Mareſchal de Catinat, after a ſhort ſtay with his Excellency, took his Leave, and about 5 in the afternoon, the Marquis de Gevres came from the King with a Compliment to his Excellency; and ſoon after came the Count de Teſſe with the like Compliments from the Dutcheſs of Burgundy, the Marquis
